

Printed from

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Business school organises international conference on entrepreneurship in city

TNN | Mar 2, 2018, 06.50 AM IST

CHENNAI: The Great Lakes Institute of Management hosted its 10th International Entrepreneurship Conference at its Chennai campus on Thursday.

Organised by the Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurship committee, the conference had N T Arun Kumar, special representative - IT & Innovation, and director general (designate) of International Institute of Digital Technologies, Government of Andhra Pradesh, as the chief guest.

Guest of honor was Mr. Matt Murphy, CTO, Thinkspan, Chicago, USA who joined the conference on a video call.