

Great Lakes signs MoU with University of Luxembourg

Great Lakes Institute of Management signed a cooperation agreement with the Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance at the University of Luxembourg, Europe. Founded in 2003, the University of Luxembourg is the first and only university of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg with a Multilingual, international and research-oriented curriculum.

The agreement between the two institutes emphasizes on sharing expertise in the areas of Entrepreneurship and Innovation. Great Lakes has earned its reputation in Research, Entrepreneurship and Innovation through its various centers of Excellence and one of them is the Center for Excellence in Technopreneurship. University of Luxembourg has five high-priority research areas, twelve research units and twelve doctoral schools.

By facilitating closer ties between the Post Graduate Programme in Management at the Great Lakes Institute of Management and the Master in Entrepreneurship and Innovation at the University of Luxembourg, this partnership will help in building an one of its kind platform for knowledge sharing and coalition of expertise in these areas.

The understanding between the two institutions includes: faculty member exchanges for guest lectures or intensive courses, visits for undertaking collaborative research, and semester-long exchanges for students. Each year both the faculty may nominate up to two students to attend the other institution for one semester.

As a part of the agreement between the two institutes, Great Lakes Institute of Management would welcome two students from the FDEF to 'India's Entrepreneurship Immersion' week. The FDEF will also invite two students from Great Lakes Institute of Management to participate in the annual 'Luxembourg Entrepreneurship Week' which is organised by the FDEF Master Programme in Entrepreneurship and Innovation.

Following the agreement between the two institutes, H.E Gaston Stronck, Luxembourg's Ambassador to India visited Great Lakes and addressed the students and faculty. He appreciated the cooperation agreement between the two institutes and said this partnership would be a great opportunity for students from both the countries to understand each other's culture and to gain valuable insights on business management.

The association with the University of Luxembourg is yet another step by Great Lakes Institute of Management, keeping in sync with its motto of Global Mindset, Indian Roots and providing Great Lakes students global exposure.
