Great Lakes Unique MDP in Banking

Posted on April 14, 2014

Great Lakes Institute of Management, Chennai, has announced admissions to their two-day management development programme (MDP) on Islamic Banking and Finance. The programme will be held on April 19 and 20 on their campus. It is designed to give participants a grounding in the key concepts, products and applications of Islamic banking and finance along with an understanding of the latest developments in this industry and ideas for its implementation in India. Tuition and course fee amount to ₹ 30,000. It is being conducted in partnership with Infinity Consultants, a Bangalore-based advisory firm focused on training and development of Islamic finance in India.
