

Yogyathwa, book on leadership, released

Chennai: Former Chief Vigilance Commissioner N.Vittal has released the book on leadership Yogyathwa on Friday here. The book was jointly authored by former election commissioner T.N. Seshan and Great Lakes Institute of Management founder Bala V. Balachandran, Nixon Fernando, assistant professor, Great lakes Institute of Management.

Speaking at the function former chief election commissioner of India T.S. Krishna Murthy said, "Leadership should not be confused with personality cult. One of the essential qualities for a leader is to face and accept criticism."

"There is a big vacuum in leadership and if it continues we cannot become a developed country," said Bala V. Balachandran, one of the authors of the book. "Even some of the current leaders are lacking leadership qualities. This book aims to inculcate those qualities among the young students," he said.

Vinod Desary, managing director, Ashok Leyland, Manikandan Thangaratham, director — kindle devices, Amazon, Actress Gautami, Mohan Lakhamraju, vice-chairman, Great Lakes Institute of Management and others participated in the function.